

McLean Youth Soccer Board of Directors
2022 Slate of Nominees

Alexander Hahn

Alex Hahn is Managing Director and ESG/Corporate Reputation Practice Group Leader at Vox Global, a public affairs firm. In this role he develops strategic corporate social responsibility and ESG campaigns designed to leverage business goals, mitigate risk, and enhance corporate reputation for large and mid-size companies. He has 24 years of communications and corporate community affairs experience, including six years as Director of Charitable Partnerships and Community Affairs for the Washington Commanders. Alex previously has served on the boards of the Boys and Girls Club of Greater Washington, Fairfax Chapter; Leadership Greater Washington; and Gensys Works of the National Capital Area. Alex's daughter currently plays on the 2011G Gold team. He also served as assistant coach of her recreation team for several years.

David Fikes

David Fikes is Executive Director of the FMI Foundation, the philanthropic and research arm of FMI, the Food Industry Association, the trade association for food retailers and food manufacturers. Prior to his current position, David served as the Vice President, Communications and Community/Consumer Affairs at FMI. He chairs the DEI committee at FMI and provides resources and training for the association's members on DEI and racial justice topics. David also served as an Episcopal priest for twenty years, leading parishes in Georgia, Tennessee and Texas, giving him unique experience in communications and conflict resolution. He has worked with and led Vestries, the volunteer governing body of Episcopal Churches, and also has served on the boards of two Episcopal Church-affiliated schools in Austin, TX. David currently serves on the board of the Center for Food Integrity. His youngest daughter plays for the 2011G White team.

John Forte

John Forte is CEO and President of Virginia Tech Applied Research Corporation, a non-profit responsible for guiding strategic growth in applied research and development with the intent of strengthening national security, driving societal impact, and improving the human condition. As the head of a 501(c)(3) organization, he works closely with the Board of Directors on nominations, audits, finance, and compensation reviews, as well as other issues and committees to provide a general governance framework for successful company operations. John volunteers his time advising military personnel on the important factors to consider as they transition from their military roles to working in industry. John grew up playing soccer, playing professionally in both the US and Germany, but had to cut short his competitive career due to injuries and military deployments. John currently has three boys playing for MYS, two in the travel program and one in recreation. He and his wife both have served as volunteer recreation coaches for their sons' teams.

Neal Seth

Neal Seth is a partner at the law firm of Wiley Rein LLP., where he focuses on commercial litigation. He currently serves on the board of directors of District Sports, a non-profit organization that organizes leagues, tournaments, and other soccer events in the DC area. District Sports also invests directly in the community, donating to many local DC organizations. Neal formerly served on the boards of the South Asian Bar Association of Washington and the National South Asian Bar Association. He also has co-chaired his firm's Diversity Equity and Inclusion committee. Neal is a McLean native and played for MYS in the 1980s, both in the house league and on one of the original boys' travel teams. His daughter currently plays on the 2011G Green team.

Maire Shine

Maire Shine is a senior financial analyst at the Peterson Companies, where she assists the Chairman of the Non-Real Estate Asset Board and is responsible for analyzing capital allocation metrics, researching investment alternatives, and supporting enterprise strategy initiatives. She also supports the Senior Vice President of Finance across all corporate finance initiatives. She holds Series 7 and Series 66 licenses. Maire played on the William & Mary Women's Varsity Soccer Team from 2014-2017. She is a McLean native and played for MYS from ages 6 to 16; she also volunteered at the club throughout high school and college. Most recently, Maire was an MYS coach at the 2010 and 2011 girls age groups.
